Section 12 (2) of the Local Government Finance Act 2012 allows local authorities in England to set a Council Tax rate for long term empty properties. From 1 April 2019 a Council Tax premium will be charged when a property has been unoccupied and substantially unfurnished for two years or more. The premium is set at 100%. Properties subject to the premium will incur an additional 100% charge on top of the total band charge detailed above.
