

Street trading fees

Schedule 4 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982

Paragraph 9 states

A district council may:

- charge such fees as they consider reasonable for the grant or renewal of a street trading licence or a street trading consent.
- determine different fees for different types of licence or consent and, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of this sub-paragraph, may determine fees differing according—
 - (a) to the duration of the licence or consent;
 - (b) to the street in which it authorises trading; and
 - (c) to the descriptions of articles in which the holder is authorised to trade.
- determine that fees may be paid by instalments.
- recover from a licence-holder such reasonable charges as they may determine for the collection of refuse, the cleansing of streets and other services rendered by them to him in his capacity as licence-holder.
